SEPTEMBER 22. 1962 LEWIS FIELD STADIUM

Tonight's Game

Tigers Entertain Bearcats in Season Opener

Tonight's season opener for the Fort Hays State Tigers brings the Bearcats of Northwest Missouri State to Lewis Field Stadium. The Missourians, with 19 returning lettermen and several prized transfers, are anxious to improve last year's 2-7 record.

Coach Earl Baker's 1961 team won two of its first three, including a tight 17-16 decision over FHS. But then the Bearcats lost the final six outings in succession.

The Maryville, Mo., school got off on the wrong foot last weekend, however, with a 7-6 loss at the hands of Peru (Neb.) State. The Nebraska team, a perennial power in that state, scored in the final four minutes to down the Bearcats.

That early contest puts Baker's squad one game up on the Tigers of Coach Wayne McConnell, who are opening the season one week later than usual. Another problem for FHS to fathom tonight is the seldom-seen single wing offensive pattern employed by the Missourians. Baker's crew is one of the few college teams still using the fast-disappearing single wing.

Some of the top performers for Maryville include tailbacks Joe Bell, a letterman, and Bernie Ricono, a transfer from Arizona State; end Ed Whitaker and center Duane Abbott, the co-captains, and veteran linemen Larry Holland and Larry Timmerman. The Bearcats may also field the tallest gridder FHS will meet this season in 6-8, 235-pound end Roger Voss, who doubles as a defensive tackle.

Fort Hays State also looks for an improved season. The Tigers won four, lost four and tied one last fall, winning their final three games in a row and finishing third in the CIC. Then a post-season discovery of an ineligible player led to the forfeiture of all victories and the tie.

This season the Bengal roster includes 19 lettermen, eight top-flight transfers and a number of promising freshman prospects. There is more experience and greater depth than in recent years.

The top returnees include Dave Parker, the top rusher in the CIC last year; halfback-linebacker Jim Lee, the team's defensive leader; end Cliff Leiker, twice an all-conference choice before missing last season with an injury; fullback Steve Worley, and linemen Ron Gardner, Kirk Pope, Jim Sanderson, Larry Dreiling and Jerry Strecker.

McConnell's tentative starting offensive lineup calls for lettermen at all positions, and the defensive unit is also liberally laced with experienced Tigers.

Next Week

Next week the Tigers play host to Colorado College in the second consecutive home game of the new season, and the added attraction will be provided by thousands of high school band members and parents of FHS students on campus for Band and Parents' Night. FHS has beaten the Colorado team only twice in 12 meetings and will be out to avenge a bitterly contested 14-6 setback at Colorado Springs last fall. Kickoff time: 7:30 p.m.

In History . . .

A year ago . . .

FHS lost to Northwest Missouri at Maryville, 17-16, in a game that included every possible method of scoring in football. All 17 of the Missourians' points came in the second quarter. A safety and a two-point play after a touchdown (NCAA rules were in effect) gave the Bearcats the triumph, despite a 39-yard field goal by Tiger Don Schrock.

Five years ago . . .

FHS outscored the Bearcats, 40-27, at Maryville in a game that included little in the way of defense. Ace Tiger fullback Chuck Vernon scored three times to spark the winners' offense. The Missouri squad battled from a 40-13 deficit to the final margin with a late rally.

Ten years ago . . .

A last-quarter Tiger march was stopped one foot short and FHS lost to Maryville, 7-6, at Maryville. Halfback John Roth scored the lone Tiger TD, and Curt DeBey, Don Rorabaugh and Charles Stahl sparkled in the line.

Dazzling Dave Parker

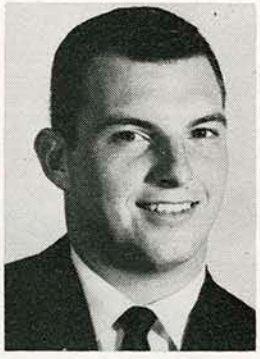

Dazzling Dave Parker, Fort Hays State's incomparable offensive leader, returns to spark the Tigers during the '62 campaign. The 153-pound hustler was the top rusher in the Central Intercollegiate Conference last fall and led his own team in rushing, passing, scoring, total offense, punt returns and kickoff returns. He will be playing his second season for Coach Wayne McConnell, having transferred to FHS after two years at Colorado College. Multiple injuries failed to stop Dave last fall, and a knee operation during the off-season appears to have been successful. He is a graduate of Western Military Academy, Alton, Ill., is married and majoring in physical education.

"Just wash it"

It's time for this '62 Buick to have its 1,000 mile inspection but the only way to know it is to read the odometer. The owner can't think of a thing his new Buick needs except a wash job.

This is happening hundreds of times every day in Buick Dealers' Service Departments right across the country.

The 1962 Buick is setting records for trouble-free performance. And this is no accident. This '62 Buick is the end product of intense "reliability programming" at every step of the way, in design, in engineering, and in the manufacturing and inspection of every one of its nearly 7500 components.

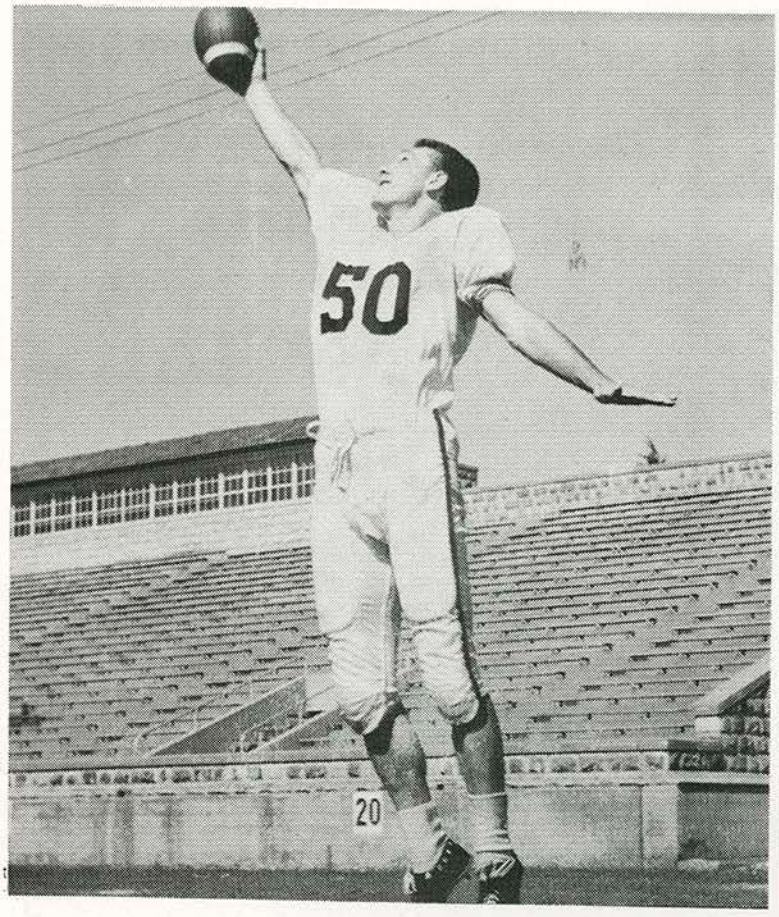

Behind this car is 3,400,000 miles of testing in 33 states —over all kinds of roads, in all kinds of weather, through all kinds of traffic. Why has all this been done? A matter of pride and good business . . . to make certain that the 1962 Buick will be as fine a performer and as reliable a car—regardless of price—that anyone can own today.

By the way, the Buick Service Manager will do more than wash this car. He'll give it a good thorough check-up, just because he loves it.

It's a great experience to own and drive a 1962 Buick. Why not make this your Buick year? Your nearest quality Buick Dealer will put you at the wheel of any Buick you choose. Buick Motor Division, General Motors Corporation.

Leaping Cliff Leiker

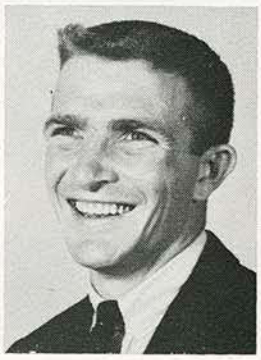

Leaping Cliff Leiker, an all-conference selection in 1959 and 1960, returns to action this fall after sitting out the '61 campaign with a knee injury. Leiker led the CIC in pass receiving in 1960 with 29 grabs and his availability should do wonders for the Tiger passing attack. The 6-2½, 170-pound Hays High grad is also a very capable defensive halfback and could see action there. The conference powers granted Cliff another year of eligibility, as he was injured early in the season opener last year. Cliff is majoring in sociology.

SCHERING CORPORATION · BLOOMFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Should a gentleman offer a Tiparillo to a lady?

What is the story of this remarkable new smoke by Robt. Burns?

If she enjoys smoking a cigarette, why not? The Tiparillo* is slim, neat, mild as mild can be. Go ahead, offer her one.

But although Tiparillo is not "men only" it is "men mainly."

And that new pliable, pearly tip pays more than just lip service to your smoking pleasure. It's your mouthpiece to the careful blending of choicest imported tobaccos. Tiparillo has the kind of flavor you don't have to inhale to enjoy . . . peace of mind in every puff. Moreover, there's the exclusive veinless Ultra Cigar Wrapper* that burns so evenly and smoothly it insures complete mildness.

The surprisingly whiter ash is visible evidence of Tiparillo mildness. And that's your best smoking tip for today. Only 5¢ each. ONLY 5¢? Yes, only 5¢.

Jolting Jim Lee

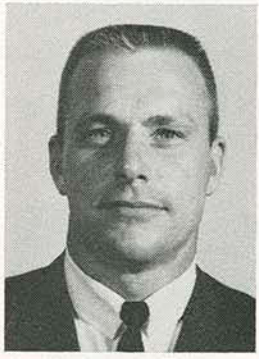

Jolting Jim Lee, the Tigers' rugged defensive standout, may well be the top linebacker in the conference. Overlooked for too long in post-season all-star selections, he should be a top candidate for defensive all-CIC honors this fall. Bengal coaches have called the 180-pounder one of the toughest gridders they've ever seen, and he's a favorite among Tiger fans who enjoy watching defensive combat. Jim also plays offensive halfback and is an outstanding blocker in the slotback position. He has lettered three years at FHS, is a graduate of Atchison County Community High at Effingham and is majoring in mathematics.

1962 RULES CHANGES

1961's number one controversy provokes the chief rules change for 1962

by CHARLES W. TUCKER, JR.

The Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association has added no new rules for 1962, but they have amended several of the old rules, which will give them a new look from the point of view of the grid fan, and which should be mentioned here in order to clarify what has happened. There have also been the usual number of technical changes in wording and rewriting to further simplify the application of the rules, but these will not be noticed by the spectator. Of the four or five changes in this year's rules, the one which will be the most conspicuous is the change in the rule governing the extension of a period; and it may be well to refresh our memories on this one in light of the controversy that developed in the Notre Dame-Syracuse game last November.

Syracuse was leading 15-14; and on the last play of the game Notre Dame tried a field goal, which failed. Time had expired on the play, but one of the officials called a penalty on a Syracuse end for roughing the holder of the kick. After a 15-yard penalty, Notre Dame tried another field goal, and this one was successful—thereby winning the game for them 17-15. After the game was over, a considerable controversy developed as to whether Notre Dame should have had another play. The rule governing extension of a period is rather long and somewhat complicated to the average fan, but there is one part of the rule which specifically states that the period shall not end if there is a foul on the last play by team B while team A is in possession of the ball. The Official N.C.A.A. Rules Interpretations contained ambiguous statements as to what constituted "possession" in the case of an attempted field goal. This led to the technical dispute that caused so much discussion last fall. The Rules Committee has now amended this rule in order to prevent any future occurrence of such a rhubarb. They have simply eliminated that part of the rule which reads, "a foul by team B while team A is in possession." In other words, if team B fouls team A on the last play of the game this year, team A gets another play regardless of whether they had kicked or passed the ball.

Among the other changes which will be noticed by you astute fans are the following:

TEAM A MAY NOW DOWN THEIR OWN SCRIMMAGE KICK WITHIN TEAM B's 10-YARD LINE WITHOUT PENALTY.

For many years, team A has not been permitted to touch its scrimmage kick within team B's 10-yard line without penalty. The penalty was a touchback which gave team B the ball on its 20-yard line, first and ten to go. In years gone by, one of the great weapons in offensive football was a good kicker who could get that ball high enough to get his ends down the field and far enough to put it close to the opponent's goal line. If the ends were successful in downing the ball close to the goal line, team B was in the hole with their back to the wall. Because of the fact that there was vicious blocking by both teams, around the ball, the defense blocking out the offensive players in the hope that the ball would roll across the goal line for a touchback, and the offense trying to block out the defensive players in an attempt to get at the ball, the rule was put in the book restricting the offensive team from touching the ball within team B's 10-yard line. The Committee has now decided to change the rule back to where it was many years ago with no restriction on the kicking team attempting to down their own kick. So, we can assume there will be plenty of action on a punted ball near the goal line this season.

PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL SHIFT REDUCED FROM 15 YARDS TO 5 YARDS.

This is the second time this penalty has been changed in the past several years. On many plays there is a very fine distinction as to what is an illegal shift, which carries a 15-yard penalty, and an illegal motion, which carries a 5-yard penalty. Most officials are reluctant to take 15 yards away from a team on a borderline decision for an infraction no more serious than one which carries a 5-yard penalty. For this reason, it is quite possible that there were illegal shifts which were not penalized. By reducing the penalty on an illegal shift from 15 yards to 5 yards, it is now in the same category with illegal motion and will probably be penalized more frequently in the future.

"DELIVER A BLOW" INSERTED IN THE DISQUALIFYING FOULS RULE.

Last year, the disqualification rule stated that no player should strike an opponent with his fist, extended forearm, elbow or locked hands, or kick or knee an opponent. Penalty — 15 yards and disqualification from further participation in the game. Apparently, the language of striking an opponent with extended forearm, elbow or locked hands was not strong enough, so they have inserted the words "deliver a blow" with extended forearm, elbow or locked hands which is quite clear in its language.

PENALTY FOR ILLEGALLY KICKING A BALL IN PLAYER-POSSESSION INCREASED FROM 5 TO 15 YARDS.

Last year, the penalty for illegally kicking a ball in player-possession was 5 yards from the spot. This year, the rule has been changed to 15 yards from the previous spot. In other words, if a defensive tackle broke through the line of scrimmage and deliberately kicked the ball out of the hands of an opponent who was holding it for a place kick, the penalty would now be 15 yards from the spot where the ball was snapped. The rule also goes further and states that this year no player shall deliberately kick a forward pass. This is a good trick if you can do it, but not in the eyes of the Rules Committee, as they have prescribed a 15-yard penalty from the previous spot for such an act. The penalty for deliberately kicking a free ball remains the same — offended team's ball at the spot of the foul.
